

Streatham Conservation Areas

Leigham Court Estate Conservation Area (CA 31).	An important social housing development. Also known as the ABCD Estate being the initials of the principal roads in the development. Built by the Artisans', Labourers', & General Dwellings' Company from 1894 to 1905 with some later additions.
Streatham Common Conservation Area (CA43).	Originally the manorial wastes of South Streatham Village. The 70 acres or so of common land are managed by the London Borough of Lambeth.
Streatham High Road and Streatham Hill Conservation Area (CA 54)	Originally constructed as a Roman Road linking Londinium with the South Coast. Now a major arterial road, the A23. The townscape of Streatham High Road is mainly late Victorian and Edwardian, and notable for its retail and commercial architecture. Further features of the High Road are the large 1930s residential developments with their Art Deco styles.
